Question 1

Correct

Mr. Romero is 64, retiring soon, and considering enrollment in his employer-sponsored retiree group health plan that includes drug coverage with nominal copays. He heard about a neighbor's MA-PD plan that you represent and because he takes numerous prescription drugs, he is considering signing up for it. What should you tell him?

- ☐ a. Generally, employers prefer retirees to have both the retiree group plan and the MA-PD plan to fill in the gaps, but he would be better off with just the MA-PD plan.
- ☐ b. Generally, employers prefer retirees to enroll in a stand-alone PDP, so he should consider that instead of the MA-PD.
- ☒ c. He should compare the benefits in his employer-sponsored retiree group health plan with the benefits in his neighbor's MA-PD plan to determine which one will provide sufficient coverage for his prescription needs. ✔ Correct: The type of Medicare Advantage plans offered vary by employers. Therefore, beneficiaries should compare their employer's retiree plan with other available plan options.
- ☐ d. When possible, it is always the best option to have both the employer's plan and the MA-PD, so he would have no out-of-pocket expenses.

Question 2

Correct

Mrs. Velasquez cares for her frail elderly mother, Maria, who lives in North Carolina. She is worried that without additional support, her mother will need to go into a nursing home. Mrs. Velasquez asks you if there is any Medicare plan that might allow her mother to remain in the community rather than going into a nursing home. How should you advise Mrs. Velasquez?

- ☒ a. There are Programs of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE) for frail elderly beneficiaries certified as needing a nursing home level of care but are able to live safely in the community at the time of enrolment.

✓ Correct. Programs of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE) are for frail elderly beneficiaries certified as needing a nursing home level of care but can live safely in the community at the time of enrolment. They include comprehensive medical and social service delivery systems, using an interdisciplinary team approach in an adult day health center, supplemented by in-home and referral services.

- ☐ b. There are Medicare Cost Plans that are widely available nationwide that are designed for the frail elderly.
- ☐ c. There are Medicare-Medicaid Plans (MMPs) that are available in all states and are designed for the frail elderly.
- ☐ d. There are Medicare Private Fee-for-Service (PFFS) plans that are not Medicare Advantage plans and are specifically designed for the frail elderly.

Question 3

Correct

Mrs. Burton is a retiree with substantial income. She is enrolled in an MA-PD plan and was disappointed with the service she received from her primary care physician because she was told she would have to wait five weeks to get an appointment when she was feeling ill. She called you to ask what she could do so she would not have to put up with such poor access to care. What could you tell her?

- ☐ a. She must write to the plan and wait for a response and then, if she is still dissatisfied, she could file an appeal with her state Medicaid office requesting transfer to one of its managed care plans.
- ☐ b. She should call the doctor's office to complain since the plan cannot do anything about the doctor's schedule.
- ☒ c. She could file a grievance with her plan to complain about the lack of timeliness in getting an appointment.

✓ Correct: Enrollees or their representatives may file a grievance if they experience problems with their health care services, such as timeliness, appropriateness, access to, and/or setting of a provided health service, procedure, or item.

- ☐ d. She should not expect to get in to see her doctor any more quickly since she is a Medicare patient.

Question 6

Correct

Hank's Fish Store, Inc. is a small company with just 15 employees located in Florida. Hank, the store owner, has provided excellent health benefits to the store's workforce. William, one of the store's long-time employees, will soon be reaching age 65 and eligible for Medicare. William is in good health. He intends to remain an active full-time employee, working several years after becoming eligible for Medicare. What type(s) of retiree health benefit will Hank's Fish Store be able to offer William?

- ☒ a. Hank's can continue to offer William the same employee health benefit plan, or, if William enrolls in Medicare Part B, it can enroll him in a Medicare Advantage plan that is offered to the public.

Correct: Employers with less than 20 employees (as calculated under Medicare secondary payor rules) may be able to offer Medicare Advantage plans to their active employees and their dependents. Larger firms are not able to offer such plans. In many cases, this helps small businesses save on health coverage costs since Medicare becomes the primary payor.

- ☐ b. Hank's can only offer the same plan it provides to its employees who are not Medicare eligible.
- ☐ c. A MSA plan that includes prescription drug coverage.
- ☐ d. A PACE plan.
